

ABSTRACT

Process for the preparation of O-acylated glucose derivatives, in particular O-acylated predominantly in the 6 position, by reaction of a carboxylic acid with an alkyl haloformate, so as to form a mixed anhydride, and then reaction of the mixed anhydride with glucose.